OBJECTIVES:

In developing the message of Haggai and Malachi, the student should

1. be cognizant of the introductory issues related to each book,
2. understand the solutions to these problems,
3. become familiar with some of the key bibliographic resources available for these books,
4. know the basic content and theology of each book, and
5. acquire an appreciation for the theological content of the books of Haggai and Malachi.

ASSIGNMENTS:

1. Quizzes: At the beginning of each class, a quiz over an assigned section of the syllabus, which includes the content from an English translation, may be administered—65% of grade.
2. Reading requirement: The reading assignment for this class is due on Monday, November 26. On this day, the student must turn in his reading on the specified report that is stapled with this material. If the student completes all the assigned reading by this date, he will receive a 98%. If the student does not complete the assignment by this day, he will have 1% subtracted from 98% for every 25 pages that he is short of the total pages due on this date. If the reading is not turned in on that day, the student receives a zero for this—10% of grade.

The following are the works that the student must read (total pages due is 910; for a full citation of bibliographic information, see the third page of this handout):

3. Sight reading of Hebrew Text: Each Th.M. student is required to be able to sight read and interact with the Hebrew Text of Haggai and Malachi. A time will be schedule with the professor to demonstrate that the student can judiciously read from the Hebrew text. This should be scheduled for no later than Monday, December 3—25% of grade.

CLASS ABSENCES:

The policy for absenteeism in summer school is that a student may miss up to two hours of a class with an unexcused absence and up to six hours with an excused absence. The maximum number of absences is eight hours of a class. Anyone who is absent from class beyond this will receive an “F” for this course, except by vote of the faculty in extenuating circumstances.

When a student has consumed his two hours of permissible unexcused absences for a given course, his final grade will be penalized by 1% per hour of class that he has gone beyond this limit and extending until he has missed eight hours of class. After this, he will receive an “F” for the course.

An excused absence is one where the student’s absence is beyond his control. In order to have his absence excused the student must submit to the course instructor a written explanation for his absence. Based upon this the instructor will then determine whether or not the absence should be excused.
